Junior readers celebrate Book Week at the Corryong Library

Young book enthusiasts from the Corryong Kindergarten received a special invitation to celebrate Book Week at the Library.

The children listened as they were read this year's Children's Book Council Book of the Year (Early Childhood category) 'The Swap'; learning that sometimes your brother or your sister are good just the way they are. After the story the children enjoyed making crocodile puppets with the assistance of staff at the Corryong Library.

"The visit to the Corryong Library for Book Week was a lovely experience for all the children and we wish to thank Marilyn Hill and the Corryong Library staff for arranging it," said Ms Janet Bailey on behalf of the Corryong Kindergarten.
