Speak Out Loud to connect community

May 1 – Corryong Youth Club Hall

Getting to the heart of what can assist all Upper Murray residents to live life to the full is the aim of the Speak Out Loud event coming to Corryong on Friday 1 May. Towong Shire Council is hosting the free event in partnership with the Victorian Government to raise the profile of the many support services available in the Upper Murray.

“We already know that, in general, the quality of life is outstanding in the magnificent Upper Murray,” commented Cr David Wortmann, Towong Shire Council Mayor. “However, there are many services available that can help residents to live life to their fullest potential,”

“Speak Out Loud will connect local residents, no matter what their age is or what their abilities are, to a diverse offering of government and other support services, that they may not be aware of,” explained Cr Wortmann.

With children’s activities, a barbecue and refreshments available throughout the event free of charge, plus prizes and giveaways, Speak Out Loud will provide a relaxed and enjoyable environment for Upper Murray locals to take in the information and presentations from more than 20 exhibitors, including Victorian Government agencies and other support organisations.

“The exhibitors, who provide services for youth, families, persons living with health or impairment issues and the elderly, are eager to meet people at Speak Out Loud who can benefit from their support,” said Cr Wortmann.

Speak Out Loud will be held between 10am and 2pm at the Youth Club Hall, Donaldson Street, Corryong on Friday 1 May 2015.
