Showcase of great services plus Devonshire tea at Speak Out Loud

Corryong businesses and farming families can meet with a leading rural business planning specialist, Dianna Jacobsen from Shine at Business, at this Friday's Speak Out Loud event. As one of the many exhibitors who will be in attendance, Dianna will also deliver a keynote address on the topic of 'Time Management and Succession Planning' which is sure to be of special interest to Upper Murray businesses and farming families.

The Speak Out Loud event, hosted by Towong Shire Council in partnership with the Victorian Government, is being held to raise the profile of services that are available to assist residents in the Upper Murray.

"Despite our rural location, there are many Government and other lifestyle services accessible to Corryong residents," explained Cr Debi Gadd, Towong Shire Councillor. "Council is excited to bring many of these service providers together at Speak Out Loud, giving members of the community the opportunity to connect with them face-to-face".

Among the service providers to be represented at Speak Out Loud is Hume Riverina Community Legal Services, who offer a free legal service to Upper Murray residents, as well as the Victorian Department of Justice and Regulation whose role it is to advocate for the rights and safety of all Victorians.

"We encourage as many people as possible to pop in to the event, enjoy the complimentary refreshments on offer, and take a look at how the exhibitors could help you and your family," said Cr Gadd.

Children's activities, a Devonshire tea, and a community barbecue lunch will be available at the event free of charge, plus prizes and giveaways. Speak Out Loud is being held between 10am and 2pm at the Youth Club Hall, Donaldson Street, Corryong this Friday 1 May 2015.
