1. Introduction

The Corryong Cemeteries Trust is classified as a Class B Cemetery Trust under the Cemeteries and Crematoria Act 2003.

The Towong Public Cemetery (also known as Millers Hill Cemetery or Gravel Plains Cemetery) was approved by the Governor in Council on 31 July 1893 (gazetted on 4 August 1893).

The Governor in Council ordered on 29 August 1893 that burials in the Towong Cemetery be discontinued three months from this date (gazetted 1 September 1893). The cemetery was closed for burials on 29 November 1893.

The Towong Public Cemetery was annexed and united to the Corryong Public Cemetery in 1936 (Government Gazette September 23, 1936). The trustees of Corryong Public Cemetery were named as trustees for the united cemetery.

The Corryong Public Cemetery was approved by the Governor in Council in 1890 (gazetted 24 October 1890) and was later administered by the Shire of Upper Murray (1978) and then by the Towong Shire (1994) when the Shire of Upper Murray and the Tallangatta Shire amalgamated.

The Corryong Cemeteries Trust was established by the Governor in Council at its meeting on 16 September 1997 and amalgamates the Towong Public Cemetery and the Corryong Public Cemetery.

The Trust is a body corporate with perpetual succession established by Governor in Council under the Cemeteries Act 1958 and updated within the Cemeteries and Crematoria Act 2003 (the Act).

The correct title for incumbents of a Cemetery Trust is "cemetery trust member".

The Trust holds two fixed meetings each year – one in May and one in August. Both meetings are advertised and open to the public. The May meeting agenda is to consider legislated annual fee increases and to table Trust policies for review, and the August meeting agenda is to consider Trust accounts and recommended changes to policies. Other agenda items may be scheduled as appropriate.

Other meetings may be called by the Chairperson, or two members of the Trust, as urgent or operational issues requiring the Trust's attention arise. These meetings may or may not be open to the public at the Chairperson's discretion. This approach allows for issues to be tabled in a timely manner as they arise.

6.2 Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest is a real, perceived or potential conflict between the personal or business interests of a member of a Trust to act in the interests of the Trust.

Declarations of Pecuniary Interests must be completed by candidates for appointment as Trust members. Every Trust member is required to review and update their declaration of interests as their circumstances change, and at least once annually.

Trust Members who may be employed as a Funeral Director must declare a "Conflict of Interest" during Cemetery Trust meetings so it is recorded in the minutes.

If/when a potential "Conflict of Interest" arises the Trust member would excuse himself/herself and not take part in any discussions or voting on that particular matter.
