Corryong Skatepark Officially Opened with Community Celebration

Towong Shire Council and community members came together to celebrate the official opening of the Corryong Skatepark on Saturday, 22 March.

The event saw a tremendous turnout from residents and skatepark users, with families, young skaters, and community members enjoying the day. Al Skate Co hosted engaging workshops and tutorials, giving participants a chance to learn new skills.

Towong Shire Mayor Andrew Whitehead led the official ribbon-cutting ceremony, acknowledging the contributions of everyone involved in bringing the skatepark to life. He expressed gratitude to the community, funding partners, and project teams who helped transform the space.

"This Skatepark represents what we can achieve as a community. I extend a sincere appreciation to our community groups who have been a vital part of this project, contractors, and staff involved in the creation of the Corryong Skatepark" Mayor Whitehead said.

The event celebrated the strong community spirit, it highlighted the park's role in providing a vibrant space where young people and families can connect, socialise and enjoy, while also strengthening community ties and promoting an active lifestyle.
